Males, which were not retained as bulls, had an average marble score of 8.2MB.

The older cows represent what was formerly the Lock Rogers, Doorkey 'Purebred' Wagyu herd and the subsequent generations by the Bavea family 'Woodland Wagyu'.

The pedigrees, EBV and Sires represent not only the historical cream of the Australian Wagyu crop but a philosophy of generational continuous improvement up to and including the upcoming 2024 calf crop.

The cattle are in good condition and present an even line of structurally sound females through strict selection pressure over the years.

They are reluctantly being offered only due to a need to reduce numbers to accommodate natural increase and the further development of the Woodland Wagyu Fullblood herd.
